Dear Sir:-

The coin you enclosed is a Holland Doid issued in the Province of Gelderland in 1752. Each of the different states of the united provinces issued similar types of money but with their own arms on them. I am herewith enclosing the coin.

My dear Rev. Aubert:-

The coin which you sent on to me, and which I am now enclosing was struck at El Aziz at Damascus in 1195 A.D. El Aziz was one of the successors of Saladin in Syria and Egypt. The coin is genuine and is not rare.

Trusting you are well, I remain,

Yours very truly,

Curator.
